

Terms & Conditions

Once a sale has taken place, no tickets may be refunded. We will gladly try and re-sell tickets on behalf of customers. There is no guarantee that we will be able to do so. If a customer wishes us to re-sell tickets, then they must return the originals to us before we will be able to attempt to re-sell them. If a customer wishes to exchange their tickets for another performance they may do so by contacting the box office at boxoffice@frintonsummertheatre.org

An administration charge of £3 is made for exchanging tickets.

Any change or exception to this policy is entirely at the discretion of the management.

- Doors open 30 minutes before the show start time.
- Latecomers will not be admitted, and refunds will not be given.
